

Meet the Artist

Cheng Jin Lu

Cheng Jin Lu, who is called “Chou Gui” was born in Wuhu of An Hui province of China in 1963. He was wrapped up in art as a child, which made his father, a teacher in brush-work, very pleased. In middle school, Yin Tian Qi, a famous print artist, instructed him.

In 1989, he graduated from the Art Institute of China in Design and Upholstery and went on to work for many design companies in Hong Kong. In outdoor scene design, his works pursue nature and a deep vision, focusing on light and mystery.

He concentrates as well on the relationship between subject and background, which extends the connotation and artistic conception of his compositions. Recently, his concentration is on the abstract arts, using strong, bright colors to express richer meaning in his concepts.

Chou Gui’s works are in private collections around the world and his Magnum Opus “Wai Gui”, “Da Di Fang Ge”, “Cheng Xu”, “Po Tu” was awarded several grand prices in China and worldwide.
